1. Aims

The Learner Conduct Policy aims to:

- Provide a consistent approach to conduct around the Greater Peterborough University Technical College (UTC) in line with the UTC Code of Conduct and our Vision and Values.
- Define what we consider to be unacceptable behaviour, including bullying.
- Outline how learners at the Greater Peterborough UTC are expected to behave.
- Summarise the roles and responsibilities of different people within the UTC community with regards to behaviour management and conduct.
- Outline our system of rewards and sanctions.

2. Legislation and statutory requirements

This policy is based on advice from the Department for Education (DfE) on:

- Behaviour and discipline in schools
- Searching, screening and confiscation at school
- The Equality Act 2010
- Use of reasonable force in schools
- Supporting pupils with medical conditions at school

It is also based on:

- The special educational needs and disability (SEND) code of practice.
- Schedule 1 of the Education \(Independent School Standards\) Regulations 2014; paragraph 7 outlines a school's duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of children; paragraph 9 requires the school to have a written behaviour policy and paragraph 10 requires the school to have an anti-bullying strategy.
- DfE guidance explaining that UTCs should publish their behaviour policy and anti-bullying strategy online.

This policy complies with our funding agreement and articles of association.

3. Definitions

Misconduct is defined as:

- Any disruption in lessons, in corridors between lessons and at break and lunchtimes.
- Failing to follow the instructions, written or verbal, or requests of a member of UTC Staff, Sponsor or Visitor.
- Disruption or poor behaviour whilst in the community on the way to or from the UTC, including on UTC and / or public transport.
- Misuse of UTC technology or personal technology such as mobile telephones / devices.
- Non-completion of classwork or homework.
- Poor attitude towards learning.
- Incorrect uniform, including not carrying Greater Peterborough UTC identification.
- Smoking.
- Being in possession of tobacco and cigarette papers or equipment related to vaping / e-cigarettes.
- Acts of minor verbal abuse (isolated incident)

Serious Misconduct is defined as:

- Repeated breaches of the UTC rules or repeated acts of misconduct.
- Any form of bullying (see para 4).
- Sexual assault, which is any unwanted sexual behaviour that causes humiliation, pain, fear or intimidation.
- Vandalism or acts of negligence.
- Theft.
- Fighting or any form of physical assault.
- Any form of racist, sexist, homophobic or discriminatory behaviour.
- Possession of any prohibited items. These may include:
 - Knives or weapons, or items which are believed to be able to cause harm to self or others.
 - Alcohol.
 - Illegal drugs.
 - Misuse of controlled or uncontrolled substances.
 - Stolen items.
 - Fireworks / items which could be categorised as explosives.
 - Pornographic images.
 - Any article a staff member reasonably suspects has been, or is likely to be, used to commit an offence, or to cause personal injury to, or damage to the property of any person (including the learner).

4. Bullying

Bullying is defined as the repetitive, intentional harming of one person or group by another person or group where the relationship involves an imbalance of power.

Bullying is therefore:

- Deliberately hurtful.
- Repeated, often over a period of time.
- Difficult to defend against.

Bullying can include:

Type of bullying	Definition
Emotional	Being unfriendly, excluding, tormenting
Physical	Hitting, kicking, pushing, taking another's belongings, any use of violence
Racial	Racial taunts, graffiti, gestures

Sexual	Explicit sexual remarks, display of sexual material, sexual gestures, unwanted physical attention, comments about sexual reputation or performance, or inappropriate touching
Direct or indirect verbal	Name-calling, sarcasm, spreading rumours, teasing
Cyber-bullying	Bullying that takes place online such as through social networking sites, messaging apps or gaming sites

Details of the UTC approach to preventing and addressing bullying are set out in our Preventing Bullying Policy.

5. Roles and responsibilities

5.1 The governing board

The governing board is responsible for monitoring this conduct policy's effectiveness and holding the Principal to account for its implementation.

5.2 The Principal

The Principal is responsible for reviewing and approving this conduct policy.

The Principal will ensure that the school environment encourages positive behaviour and professional conduct. Ensuring also that staff deal effectively with misconduct and will monitor how staff implement this policy to ensure rewards and sanctions are consistently applied.

5.3 Staff

All staff are responsible for:

- Implementing the conduct policy consistently.
- Modelling positive behaviour as set out in the Teacher Standards documentation.
- Providing a personalised approach to the specific behavioural needs of particular pupils.
- Recording incidents of good conduct and misconduct consistently.

Student Managers are additionally responsible for overseeing the conduct of the year group for which they are responsible.

5.4 Parents / Carers

Parents / Carers are expected to:

- Support their learners in adhering to the learner code of conduct.
- Inform the UTC of any changes in circumstance(s) that may affect their learner's behaviour and / or conduct.

6. Learner code of conduct

Learners are expected to sign and adhere to the Learner Code of Conduct (Appendix 1) to:

- Behave in an orderly and self-controlled way.
- Show respect to all members of staff, visitors and each other.
- In class, make it possible for all learners to learn.
- Move quietly and calmly around the UTC.
- Treat the UTC buildings and property with respect.
- Be safe by following all health and safety instructions issued by staff. Report any unsafe activities immediately.
- STOP if you do not feel confident or prepared to use an item of equipment which may cause you or others harm.
- Always wear the correct uniform, including Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) where appropriate as set out in the Dress Code which is held on the GPUTC Website.
- Accept sanctions when given. If clarification is required on a sanction given, an appropriate time and location should be sought conducting a conversation in a calm, respectful and professional manner.
- Behave professionally when engaging with sponsors both at the UTC and during site visits.
- Refrain from behaving in a way that brings the UTC into disrepute, including when outside and when traveling to and from the UTC.
- Conform to the GPUTC Acceptable Use of Technology Policy found on the GPUTC Website.

7. Rewards and sanctions

The UTC uses a system of rewards to positively promote good conduct and sanctions to challenge misconduct to those who do not follow the Learner Code of Conduct. Learners who have been sanctioned are thereafter offered support to conduct themselves in accordance with the Learner Code of Conduct. The particulars of this are set out in item 7.1.

7.1 List of rewards and sanctions

Positive behaviour will be rewarded with:

- Praise points at various levels including postcards home - Recorded on MIS with additional supportive comments and praise.
- Phone calls home to parents.
- Certificates for top achieving students - Student Managers to present data and personal achievements to pre-set SLT meetings. Certificates shall be awarded by the Principal or Deputy thereof as appropriate.
- Special responsibilities / privileges.

The UTC may use one or more of the following sanctions in response to unacceptable conduct:

- A verbal reprimand followed by a restorative conversation.
- A formal warning.
- Detention at break or lunchtime - This must be recorded on the MIS with a clear description of the misconduct of the learner in an appropriate and professional manner.
- On-Call (See the On-Call Procedure for further details).
- Letters or phone calls home to parents / carers – Letters or calls made to parents / carers must be recorded on the MIS with a clear description of the misconduct of the learner in an appropriate and professional manner.

- Putting a learner on RAG report – This process is managed by the Student Managers with staff briefed weekly on learners who are placed on RAG report.
- Agreeing to a further behaviour / conduct contract.
- Internal isolations - This must be recorded on the MIS with a clear description of the misconduct of the learner in an appropriate and professional manner.
- Internal exclusions - This must be recorded on the MIS with a clear description of the misconduct of the learner in an appropriate and professional manner.
- Fixed term exclusions.

7.2 Malicious allegations

Where a learner makes an accusation against a member of staff or peer, and that accusation is shown to have been malicious, the Principal will discipline the learner in accordance with this policy.

Please refer to our Safeguarding Policy and Allegations of Abuse against Staff Policy for more information on responding to allegations of abuse.

8. Behaviour management

8.1 Classroom management

Teaching and support staff at the Greater Peterborough UTC are responsible for setting the tone and context for positive conduct and to create a positive and conducive learning environment within the UTC. The particulars of this are set out in the DfE Teacher Standards' document.

8.2 Physical restraint

In exceptionally rare circumstances, staff may be forced to use reasonable force to restrain a learner to prevent them endangering themselves or others.

Incidents of physical restraint must:

- Always be used as a last resort.
- Be applied using the minimum amount of force and for the minimum amount of time possible.
- Be used in a way that maintains the safety and dignity of all concerned.
- Never be used as a form of punishment.
- Be recorded and reported to parents.

8.3 Confiscation

Any prohibited items (listed in section 3) found in a learner's possession will be confiscated. These items will not be returned to learners.

The UTC will also confiscate any item which is perceived to be harmful or detrimental to the safe and orderly running of the UTC. These items may be returned to learners after discussion with senior leaders and parents, if appropriate.

Searching and screening learners at the Greater Peterborough UTC is conducted in line with the DfE's latest guidance on searching, screening and confiscation. A printed copy of this can be found in the Director of Operation's Office.

8.4 Learner support

The UTC recognises its legal duty under the Equality Act 2010 to prevent learners with a protected characteristic from being at a disadvantage. Consequently, our approach to challenging behaviour may be differentiated to cater to the needs of the learner.

The UTC's SENCO (Special Educational Needs Co-ordinator) will evaluate a learner who exhibits ongoing and repeated challenging behaviour to determine whether they have any underlying needs that are not currently being met.

Where necessary, support will be put in place in accordance with the Special Educational Needs policy.

9. Training

Behaviour management will form part of continuing professional development for all staff.

10. Monitoring arrangements

This behaviour policy will be reviewed and approved by the Principal every year.
